

115TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 2655

To amend the Small Business Act to expand intellectual property education and training for small businesses, and for other purposes.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MAY 25, 2017

Mr. EVANS introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Small Business, and in addition to the Committee on the Judiciary, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

---

A BILL

To amend the Small Business Act to expand intellectual property education and training for small businesses, and for other purposes.

1       *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Small Business Inno-
5 vation Protection Act of 2017”.

6 SEC. 2. DEFINITIONS.

7       In this Act—

- 1                         (1) the term “Administrator” means the Ad-
2 ministrator of the SBA;
- 3                         (2) the term “Director” means the Under Sec-
4 retary of Commerce for Intellectual Property and
5 Director of the USPTO;
- 6                         (3) the term “SBA” means the Small Business
7 Administration;
- 8                         (4) the term “small business concern” has the 9 meaning given the term in section 3(a) of the Small
10 Business Act (15 U.S.C. 632(a));
- 11                         (5) the term “small business development cen-12 ter” means a center described in section 21 of the 13 Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 648); and
- 14                         (6) the term “USPTO” means the United 15 States Patent and Trademark Office.

16 SEC. 3. FINDINGS.

- 17                         Congress finds that—
- 18                         (1) the USPTO and the SBA are positioned 19 to—
- 20                                 (A) build upon several successful intellec-
21 tual property and training programs aimed at 22 small business concerns; and
- 23                                 (B) increase the availability of and the 24 participation in those programs across the 25 United States; and

1                         (2) any education and training program admin-
2                         istered by the USPTO and the SBA should be scal-
3                         able so that the program is able to reach more small 4                         business concerns.

5                         SEC. 4. SBA AND USPTO PARTNERSHIPS.

6                         (a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 180 days after the 7                         date of enactment of this Act, the Administrator and the 8                         Director shall enter into a partnership agreement under 9                         which the Administrator and Director shall—

10                         (1) develop high-quality training, including in-
11                         person or modular training sessions, for small busi-
12                         ness concerns relating to—

13                         (A) domestic and international protection
14                         of intellectual property; and

15                         (B) how such protections should be consid-
16                         ered in the business plans and growth strategies
17                         of the small business concerns; and

18                         (2) leverage existing training materials already
19                         developed to educate inventors and small business
20                         concerns.

21                         (b) TRAINING.—The training developed under sub-
22                         section (a) may be provided by the Administrator, the Di-
23                         rector, or small business development centers established
24                         under section 21 of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C.
25                         648)—

1                             (1) through electronic resources, including
2                             Internet-based webinars; and
3                             (2) at physical locations, including at—
4                                 (A) a small business development center;
5                             or
6                                 (B) the headquarters or a regional office of 7                             the USPTO.

8 SEC. 5. SMALL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT CENTERS.

9                             Section 21(e)(3) of the Small Business Act (15
10 U.S.C. 648(c)(3)) is amended—

11                             (1) in subparagraph (S), by striking “and” at 12                             the end;

13                             (2) in subparagraph (T), by striking the period
14                             at the end and inserting “; and”; and

15                             (3) by adding at the end the following:

16                                 “(U) training developed by the Administrator
17                             and the Director of the United States Patent and 18                             Trademark Office, which may be delivered in person
19                             or through a website to small business concerns re-
20                             lating to—

21                                 “(i) domestic and international intellectual 22                             property protections; and

1               “(ii) how such protections should be con-
2               sidered in the business plans and growth strate-
3               gies of the small business concerns.”.

